BANGALORE, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 1908.

PART II.

JUDICIAL DEPARTMENT.

IN THE CHIEF COURT OF MYSORE.

CIVIL SIDE.

Rule of Practice No. 140, dated 27th November 1908.

The Chief Court issues the following rules under Section 652 of the Code of Civil Procedure for regulating the practice of subordinate Civil Courts.

1. An Order Sheet in the form annexed shall be attached to the record of each case, original or appellate.

2. The object of it is to show the course of the case from first to last, in a form as compact and easy of reference as possible. The entries in it are to be made, not in addition to, but in substitution for, those which have hitherto been scattered throughout the record. It is to contain a note of every order made in the case, and is to show the date of, and the proceedings at, every hearing. It shall show among other matters the dates on which the plaint or memorandum of appeal and the written statement (if any) were filed, issues were recorded or amended, witnesses examined, of the delivery of judgment, of the signing of the decree, and of any application for review of judgment, for amendment of the decree or for a decree absolute. It shall also contain a note of proceedings, such as the reading of the deposition of a witness examined by commission, the reading of a Commissioner's report and of the fact of any objection being made thereto and the reasons for admitting or rejecting evidence whenever the validity of the order for admission or rejection is contested. If witnesses are in attendance when a case is adjourned, the fact shall be noted.

3. When the examination of the last witness on behalf of either party is concluded, the party shall be asked whether he has any more witnesses to bring forward and his reply shall be noted on the Order Sheet. If he says that he has more witnesses, the Court shall either examine such witnesses or record its reasons for not doing so. If at any stage of the proceedings either party states that he desires additional witnesses to be summoned the Court shall record on the Order Sheet the fact of the application and the manner of its disposal.

[illegible]ports, etc., is strictly prohibited. At the head of [illegible]t, requiring an order to be made upon it, there shall be entered a serial numb[illegible] with the date of the order made and nothing more. The order itself with the reasons for making it, is to be written on the Order Sheet opposite to a serial number corresponding with that on the paper to which it refers. In the case of orders the reasons for which have to be recorded at such exceptional length that it would be inconvenient to write them on the Order Sheet, the order shall be written on a separate sheet of paper; to be placed in its chronological order in the record; but a note of the order and of the date on which it was made shall be entered in the Order Sheet.

5. The entries in the Order Sheet shall be made by the Presiding Officer at the time as the case proceeds. Notes of proceedings and routine orders shall each be initialled by him, and other orders shall be signed with his usual signature.

6. Orders fixing dates or adjourned dates for hearing, or directing anything to be done by the parties or their pleaders, shall be signed then and there by the parties or their pleaders.

7. Paras 2 and 3 of Circular Letter No. 202, dated 6th May 1908, relating to Judge's Notes are hereby cancelled.
